LAND FOR SALE.

THE undersigned, as Executor of Samuel W. Branch, deceased, will offer at public vendue, to the highest bidder, on the First Monday in November next, the tract of Land belonging to the estate of the said Samuel W. Branch, on which the said Samuel W. Branch resided at the time of his death.

The said tract of Land is situated in Halifax county, North Carolina, about two miles east of Enfield, which is the nearest Depot. It contains twelve hundred acres, about two thirds of which are cleared and in cultivation. One hundred acres of the cultivated lands are low grounds of the finest quality. The upland has inexhaustable supplies of marl, of easy access, and is as well adapted to the growth of cotton as any upland plantation in the State. There is a good Dwelling-house, Gin-house, Still-house and out-houses on the Land, an Apple Orchard, in good bearing, sufficient to make ten barrels Brandy, and altogether the plantation is one of the most desirable in the State.

At least three thousand dollars will be required in cash. A credit of one, two and three years will be allowed on the remainder of the purchase money, which must be unexceptionably secured by personal security, or the purchaser may pay all cash at his option. The title, which is indisputable, will be retained until the purchase money is paid. Persons who may desire to purchase can have an opportunity of riding over the plantation by calling at the dwelling. Possession will be given on the 1st of January next.

JOHN R. BRANCH,
BENJ. F. GARY,
Ex'rs of Samuel W. Branch, dec'd.

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N.C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required, and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

Ex'r Dr. H. J. Davis.

EXCHANGE OF N. C. BONDS FOR STOCKS.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, TREASURY DEPARTMENT. Raleigh, September 27th. 1866.

The Public are reminded that, in pursuance of an Ordinance of the late Convention, sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, until 12 M., on the first day of November next, for the exchange of the principal of bonds issued by the State before the 20th. May 1861, for the Stocks held by the State in the various Rail Roads and other Companies, of which the following are the principal:

North Carolina R. R. Co.	$3,000,000,
Raleigh & Gaston R. R. Co.	682,500,
Atlantic & N. C. R. R.	$1,066,000,
Western N. C. R. R. Co.	$1,418,000,
Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Co.	$ 350,000,

No bid less than par will be entertained. Any premiums offered may be applied to payment of the interest due on the bonds offered in exchange. Bids will be opened in the presence of the Governor and Comptroller, and those will be accepted most advantageous to the State.

Purchasers of preferred stock will not obtain rights greater than holders of stocks not preferred.

In consequence of the bonds and liens, held by the State on various Rail Road Companies, having been in part executed during the late war, I have concluded not to offer them for exchange until the reception of special instructions from the General Assembly.

I have deferred the time of opening bids in order that parties interested might have opportunity of examining the reports of the various Companies for the present year, which no doubt can be obtained from the proper officers of the Companies.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A.-ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Saturday Evening, Oct. 6, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,

JONATHAN WORTH,

OF RANDOLPH.

Election, Thursday, October 18th.

Mr. Holden and Mr. Stevens.

Mr. Holden, in the Standard of the 4th. inst., denied that he expressed to Mr. Stevens or to any one else a favorable opinion of negro suffrage, or that he told him that he had been driven from his home and was afraid to return. Hamilton, of Texas, and others might have so expressed themselves; but Mr. Holden affirms he did not. But Mr. Holden admits that he did tell the President and Mr. Stevens and others that loyalty in North Carolina was at the bottom and disloyalty on top, and the State government was in the hands of the secessionists. Hear him:

"We told Mr. Stevens and others, as we told the President, in substance what we have said in our Address in relation to the condition of things in this State. We told them that loyalty in North Carolina was at the bottom and disloyalty on top; that our State government was in the hands of the secessionists; that supreme devotion to the Union was neither a passport to office nor a badge of respectability; and that the Unionists of the State were depressed and disheartened, and the cause of restoration obstructed by this condition of things. We said this then, we set it out in full in our Address, and we stand to it now."

Mr. Holden said the same thing in his Address. He there stated that he would prove it. He has stated the same thing over and over again in the Standard, since his defeat for Governor, never before, and it has been over and over again denied, palpably and flatly, and he has been challenged time and again for proof. Has he ever proved it? Has he ever attempted proof? Did he prove it in that address? He attempted nothing like it, except the repetition of his stale, malicious charges against the State and her people. These statements he has never attempted to prove, and we tell him the proof is impossible. We defy him to bring forward a respectable witness that will swear to the truth of what he affirms at home, and with which he has wronged the State abroad, even among her vilest enemies. If Mr. Holden was not too good to repeat the statements which he admits above he made to the President and to others in Washington—if he asserted those things, the truth of which had been denied so often—for which he had been challenged for proof so repeatedly, then, indeed, may some people doubt whether he was too good to tell Mr. Thad. Stevens what he affirms he did not tell him.

"Disloyalty is on top" in North Carolina! Where is the evidence of it? Where is the man in North Carolina, known to be disloyal (or suspected, if there be one,) to the government of the United States, who enjoys any public office whatever? Where is the disloyal man who enjoys either the public confidence or the confidence of the officers of the State government? We defy Mr. Holden to name one. He cannot do it.

But "our State government is in the hands of the secessionists." Is Gov. Worth, or Secretary Best, or Treasurer Battle, or Comptroller Brogden, or Attorney General Rogers, a secessionist? Were any of them ever secessionists? Are Judges Pearson, Battle and Reade, of the Supreme Court, secessionists? Are Judges Gilliam, Barnes, Fowle, Warren, Mitchell, Shipp, Merrimon and Buxton, secessionists? Were either of them ever believers in the doctrine of secession? Never! Are Messrs. Wright, Yeates, Eaton, Lemly, Simonton, Cowles and Russell, Councillors of State, secessionists? Not one of them. Is Mr. Phillips, Speaker of the House, or Mr. Winstead, Speaker of the Senate, a secessionist? Not at all. Is the Adjutant General, Mr. Gilmer, a secessionist? Is Mr. Kerr, the State Geologist, a secessionist? Are Messrs. Winston and Ramsay, the Board of Internal Improvement, secessionists? Are Messrs. Mendenhall, Husted and Pool, of the Literary Board, secessionists? Is Mr. Bagley, the Private Secretary, a secessionist? Is the venerable Clerk of the Supreme Court, Mr. Freeman, a secessionist? Is the Clerk of the Public Treasurer a secessionist? Are Senators Graham and Pool secessionists? Are Messrs. Stubbs, Clark, Fuller, Turner, Hanes, Walkup and Jones, members of Congress, secessionists? Bring out their record if they ever were secessionists and prove it. We dare Mr. Holden to give the proof of it. These are all the officers that compose the State government, excepting the Sheriffs, Clerks and Magistrates, and we venture the assertion that three-fourths of them never believed in the doctrine of secession.

The gentlemen whose names are given above as State officers, so far as we know, were among the firmest, most constant and resolute opposers of secession, and the most decided Union men in the State before the war. Every man regretted, more deeply than Mr. Holden did, the necessity which forced the State into an attitude of hostility to the general government. They never taught nor believed in secession as a remedy or right, peaceful or otherwise, as Mr. Holden did. All of them were opposed to war and the friends of peace. All of them endorsed before the war, during the war and since the war, the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and they love and revere that instrument to-day more fully and dearly than Mr. Holden does. Some of them maintained their devotion to the Union during the whole war, as Mr. Holden did not, and those who sustained and supported the war, did so from a sense of duty, only when it was forced upon them as a choice of evils.

And since the war, what have any of them done, which squints at disloyalty? Have either of them in the slightest degree violated the oath of amnesty? Have any of them by word or deed shown hostility to the government? Are they not among the purest, most virtuous, most peaceable and law abiding citizens among us? Do they not, by precept and example, both support and obey the government of the United States? Do they not honor the government, revere the Constitution, obey the laws and desire and seek reconciliation and real harmony and Union with all the States?

Where, then, is the foundation for the calumnies and assertions, heaped upon the government of North Carolina by Mr. Holden, and poured into the ears of the President, and Stevens and Sumner, and sent upon the wings of the wind, to excite Northern and Radical hostility against his native State and people?

"We told Mr. Stevens and others, as we told the President." Yes, and the man who could assert such things, without proof, in such a place and at such a period in the history of his State, and for such a purpose, could say almost anything. What Mr. Stevens charges upon Mr. Holden is nothing,—a mere myth, compared with this. It shows a fixed purpose to be avenged upon the people of North Carolina for not electing him Governor, which stops at nothing that can accomplish the object.

A word for the secessionists: Every citizen of the State at all acquainted with our history, knows that we never did, before the war, or during the war or since the war, advocate the doctrine of secession in any form. We never shall believe in it as a right of the States, either as a reserved right or as a right under the Constitution. Yet truth and justice oblige us to say, that there was never a class of gentlemen more unjustifiably, wickedly and falsely abused than the secessionists of North Carolina have been, both North and South, since the war.—Whatever instrumentality they had in bringing on the war or in promoting it, they were honest in. They acted from conviction. We speak of the true, high-minded, honorable secessionists only. We can find no word of praise in our vocabulary, for "so-called" secessionists, no more than we have for the "so-called" Union men—many of whom, like Mr. Holden, are one and the same. We say, the true secessionists of North Carolina, since the war, as a class, have exhibited as much loyalty to the government, as strong a desire for the restoration of peace, harmony and the Union, and have given as many proofs of their good citizenship, their attachment to the principles of the Constitution, and have as religiously observed the oath they have taken, as any other portion of our citizens. It is not true, as charged, that the secessionists have shown a love for office, or a desire to control the government. They have, on the contrary, been indisposed to put themselves forward in the fore-ground. They have shown a willingness to occupy back seats, to use one of Mr. Holden's elegant phrases. If they have held or do hold office, it has been at the earnest bidding of the people. The people have brought them forward. Why? Simply because they had more confidence in their loyalty and true devotion to the government than they had in many of Mr. Holden's "unmistakably loyal" men, and far more confidence in their ability and trust-worthiness.

Finally, we have spoken plainly and strongly and what we honestly believe, and what we believe three fourths, if not four fifths, of our people will endorse. Mr. Holden will most likely reiterate his bold assertions. These have been the only kind of arguments he has used. We shall feel under no obligation to notice them further. But if he will prove any of the above statements to be untrue, we will readily acknowledge it. Until he does this we shall denounce what he says he told "Mr. Stevens and others, and the President," as wholly false and unfounded.

"Under the Ban."

Mr. Holden says "but we feel we are under the ban for our Union sentiments?" There you feel sore in the wrong place. If you had shown that you were a true Union man,—a consistent, uniform, unselfish Union man, a lover of your country more than self, you never would have felt at that point. Are such men as Israel G. Lash, Lewis Hanes, Dr. I. W. Jones, and others that might be named, under the ban because of their Union sentiments? Is there a solitary man in the State under the ban because of his Union sentiments? Not one, that we know. There is something else, neighbor, that puts you, and all such, under the ban. You are only reaping the just reward of your doings. "The way of the transgressor is hard."

The Editors of the Sentinel speak of our "personal and vindictive assaults upon them." We have made no such assaults upon them.—We reciprocate what they say of us—"We would not harm a hair of his head." Our differences are purely political. A little badinage, "now and then, is relished by the best of men."—Standard.

We are pleased to see the above. What we have said, either publicly or privately, of Mr. Holden, has had constant reference to his political course, and that only, and has been prompted solely by a desire to guard the peace and honor of the State, and to secure the earliest possible reconciliation with the government and the Union of the States. We reverence the Constitution, and esteem the government of our fathers, as our protector and head, and we obey its laws, but we love North Carolina as our mother; hence, whatever we think assails her honor or her interest stirs our resentment.

"Mr. Raymond is the acknowledged leader of the Worth party in this State."—Standard.

This is simply ridiculous. If Mr. Raymond has friends or followers in this State, we don't know who or where they are. He is, wherever known, justly regarded as a political boomerang and changeling.

Andrew Johnson "is the acknowledged leader of the Worth party in this State" against the black legions of Radicalism!

The Colored "Educational" Convention.

The Convention of colored men in this city, composed of quite a number of delegates, will adjourn to-day.

The Standard and Progress, of yesterday, contain the proceedings of the body in detail up to date. We have been promised, by an intelligent member of the Convention, an abstract of its more important action, which we shall probably be able to give on Monday.

We had thought and hoped that this Convention, in its deliberations, would confine itself to the avowed commendable object of its convocation, viz: the devising of suitable measures for the improvement of the moral and educational condition of the race. In the promotion of such an object they had and have the warm sympathy and good-wishes of the white people of the State. Our best citizens are earnestly disposed to give them countenance, encouragement and assistance in all proper efforts to better their physical and moral status. Supposing that the Convention would confine itself exclusively to such laudable purposes, Gov. Worth, the Senior Editor of this paper, and other gentlemen in the community, have exhibited, by their presence and counsel, a friendly interest in their proceedings. All of the gentlemen who addressed them, by letter or in person, so far as we have heard, advised them to eschew politics, and to set their faces sternly against the discussion of questions which they were incompetent, as yet, to comprehend, and the agitation of which must result in nothing but evil to them as a race. None of these gentlemen, we are sure, would have had anything to do with their meeting, if they had dreamed that their deliberations were to partake of a political or incendiary character.

It is, therefore, with great regret that we observe, in the published proceedings of the Convention, that all this good advice has been thrown away. We can see, in them, no steps taken towards the amelioration of their educational necessities. We notice a series of resolutions bearing exclusively upon political topics, approving the action of Congress, impugning the integrity and fairness of the Judiciary and Executive officers of the State, and arraigning the provisions of the Legislature made for their benefit and welfare. This is highly censurable, and will go very far towards diverting from these colored people that feeling of sympathy and kindness which was entertained towards them. We do not believe that our native blacks would have thought of entering the dangerous and destructive domain of politics, if they had been left to the guidance of their own instincts or the prompting of their own judgments. We fear that they have unwittingly allowed themselves to be tampered with by negro adventurers from abroad, who only wish to use them for their own selfish, bad purposes. They will rue this foolish course bitterly. To supply their physical wants, provide meat and bread for themselves, their wives and children, should be their first aim; the education of their children should come next. As to political rights, they will probably get them whenever they deserve them and are prepared for them.

GRAPHIC.—The travelling miscegens, Brownlow, Maynard, Stokes, Hamilton, &c., arrived in Chicago a few days since. They were received by the "celebrated Chicago Zouaves." The Times, of that city, does them up as follows:

"The reception was appropriate for several reasons. The "southern loyalists," like the loyal "Chicago zouaves," are gotten up for exhibition. Both are like Mr. A. Ward's "wax figgers": they will not stand fire. Under the influence of much heat, they are liable to melt, and run away. This accounts, perhaps, for the fact that none of them has ever been under fire. Wax figures, also, are seen to best advantage in the background, which may account for the fact that none of the "loyal southerners" and none of the "Chicago zouaves" were ever seen at the front. In the distance, they put on looks of great ferocity. Brought under closer inspection, they are expressionless, brainless compounds of beeswax, paint, corruption, baggy trowsers, and fancy jackets without any tails to them."

THE RADICAL PROGRAMME.—The "rest" which the South would enjoy if she would ratify the Constitutional amendment is well indicated by the great leader of the Radicals. In a recent speech at Lancaster Thad. Stevens said:

"I am for it, [negro suffrage] first, because it is right; second, because it protects our brethren there; thirdly, because it prevents the States from going into the hands of the rebels, and thereby giving the President and Congress, for the next forty years, to rebel hands. I am for it, and I shall go for it, when Congress meets, with all my might.

"Now, however, remember that I do not say, and never mean to say, that when these amendments which I now propose are adopted, the rebel States shall be allowed to come in until they present constitutions containing the essence of liberty; and when they do that I will let them in at any time."

THE SOUTHERN LOYALIST.—Wasn't Mr. "N. S. Morse, of Georgia," who is travelling as a "Southern Loyalist," the Connecticut gentleman who found it expedient to leave that State about the year 1861 in consequence of his secession sympathies?—Boston Post.

The same duck. He is exceedingly "loyal" now, and desires to see a general confiscation of the property of Southerners. Probably he wouldn't object to being on hand at the distribution.—Hartford Times.

And here is another of them: "Byron Laflin, N. C.," is the designation of one of the pretended "Southern Loyalists" who held the Radical Convention at Philadelphia. He is a brother of Congressman Laflin, Herkimer county, N. Y. He was a paper manufacturer in that county during the war, failed and at the close of the war went South. He is a fair specimen of the bogus "Southerners" who claimed to represent the South in that Convention. There were many more of the same sort—indeed, were few of any other sort.—N. Y. World.

The number of hogsheads of Tobacco inspected in Lynchburg from the 1st of April, 1865, to 1st Oct., 1866, was 5,954. The total stock on hand Oct. 1st 1866, was 518 hhds.

The Winchester News learns that General H. A. Wise has accepted an invitation to deliver an address on the occasion of dedicating the "Stonewall Cemetery," near that place.

Two new cases of cholera occurred in Richmond on Wednesday, and the Board reported two additional cases that occurred on Tuesday, making ten in all for that day.

The Constitutional Amendment Cheat.

"Representation in Congress on the basis of suffrage, as each State may choose for itself, * * the condition of Southern restoration."—N. Y. Herald.

"Shall the voters of the North have equal rights with the voters of the South?"—N. Y. Tribune.

The Herald asserts that on the passage of the Constitutional amendment the Rump Congress will cease to deny Southern States all right of representation in Congress, but will promptly give them an abridged representation.

The constitutional amendment can never pass, as we have conclusively shown. The Rump Congress took good care to frame one which could never pass; and they explicitly refused to promise even a reduced representation to the South in case it were passed. All the leading Radicals (and no man will to-day deny that they entirely rule their party,) have openly asserted that they will not admit the South even on that condition. The idea advanced to help the Radicals in the fall elections, that, if the constitutional amendment be passed, the country will then compel the Rump to admit Southern members, has turned some political weathercocks. It is absurd, for the Radicals will then for two years be out of the range of such compulsion; they will have been elected to the Fortieth Congress; they will consider their re-election an indorsement of the course of the Thirty-ninth, which refused to pledge representation upon the passage of the amendment; they will then make "impartial suffrage" (i. e., negro suffrage), or what not, the test, and thus keep the Southern members out of the Forty-first Congress, and the Southern votes for President in 1868 from being counted.

Congress has no plan of restoration. The pretence that it has, is a cheat, a swindle, and a lie. If it had a plan it should not be voted for, since there can be but one just plan—equal representation on the basis of population according to the Constitution.

Utterly without security, utterly without ground of hope, that the Rump will admit the Southern States to representation on consenting to have it abridged, there are, nevertheless, many intelligent men who think there is fairness in the proposed abridgment of the Southern representation. They deem the constitutional amendment "fair and impartial" under the false idea that it proceeds on suffrage instead of population as the basis of representation.

The Radical speakers, addresses, and newspapers so represent the amendment; falsely. Says the Tribune:

"Now that slavery is abolished, the three-fifths rule has of course to cease, and the new apportionment has either to be made upon the voting (white) population, as the Congressional amendment provides, or upon the total population, as will be the case if the amendment is rejected and the Johnson party have a majority in the next Congress."

"Shall the voters of the North have equal rights with the voters of the South?"

There is the false idea studiously put forth that the constitutional amendment establishes SUFFRAGE instead of POPULATION AS THE BASIS OF REPRESENTATION.

The fact is, the amendment does not change at all the present rule of POPULATION AS THE BASIS OF REPRESENTATION (as well as taxation) for the whole country. It is cunningly framed to have the appearance of changing the basis of representation from population to suffrage, yet in reality not to change it, but only to cheat the Southern States out of some fifteen or twenty members of Congress. Here is the proof. Section 2 of the proposed amendment (printed in another column) begins by declaring that "Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed." That is the old, the wise, the just apportionment of the Constitution; taxation and representation equal, and both based on population. But then follows, in the same section 2, a provision framed with a devilish ingenuity so as to strike out from population and the basis of representation three or four million Southern blacks unless they are allowed to vote. Retaining population as the basis of representation, it is cunningly contrived so as not to enumerate three or four millions of non voting Southern blacks in the Southern basis of representation, while yet enumerating the two or three millions of non-voting aliens in the Northern and Western States in the Northern basis of representation. The amendment only provides for a reduction of the basis of representation where citizens are not allowed to vote, leaving non-voting aliens still to be counted. But by the first section of the amendment, negroes are made citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. Thus, we repeat, this so "fair," this so "impartial" amendment for "apportioning Representation on the voting (white) population," is in fact only an artful, specious, and circuitous trick to strike out the Southern black population (unless allowed to vote) from the basis of representation which everywhere else is left to prevail, i. e., population voting and non-voting.

But the Tribune's pretence that the amendment bases representation upon the voting (white) population, instead of the total population, is still more egregious, still more false than we have yet shown.

One-half the white population of Maryland are disfranchised by a despotic Registration act. More than one-half the white population of Missouri are disfranchised by a similar contrivance, which excludes, too, one of Sherman's chief generals from the polls. Two-thirds of the white population of Tennessee, Brownlow and his Legislature deprive of their votes on State or Federal affairs. Here is a disfranchised non-voting population of one and one-third to one and one-half millions; but the amendment is so framed that all these disfranchised people (who aided the rebellion not half so much as the four million negroes) are to be counted in the basis of representation, while the blacks are not; the residue of the population in Maryland, Tennessee and Missouri may vote for them, and so represent them; but the residue of the Southern population cannot, under the amendment, vote for and represent the three or four millions of disfranchised blacks. With malicious ingenuity the amendment is contrived (section 2) not to reduce the basis of representation where the disfranchisement is "for participation in rebellion, or other crime."

The principle on which the blacks at the South (made citizens by section 1) are struck out of the basis of representation is thus doubly violated. The blacks are struck out of the basis of representation because their adult males are non-voters. But the non-voting aliens of the Northern States are counted in the basis of Northern representation; the million and a half non-voting population of Tennessee, Missouri, and Maryland are counted in the basis of their representation.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.—The Rev. Dr. Rosser, in a report in the Christian Advocate the present week, states that since the last Conference there have been at least 1,000 conversions in the Richmond district. In the country below Richmond, as well as in the city, the preachers are hard at work, and a great religious interest has been excited.

From Washington.
The Elections on Tuesday—The Coming Message—Representation and Amendments—Impeachment—Progress of Conservatism—Radical Alarm for the Two-Thirds Power.

(Cor. Richmond Examiner.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.

Senator Sherman, in his late speech, declared that the President would yield if the people decided against him, at the coming elections, to the Congressional plan of reconstruction; and if the people decided for the President's plan, Congress would yield. The President, however, in his response to citizens of Alexandria, has taken occasion to say that he will not abandon the line of policy which he has occupied. He intends to persist, let Congress and the Radicals do what they may.

The political speculations are now, therefore, directed to the President's message to be communicated to Congress at the assembling of the coming session. Of course all statements as to the President's intended suggestions in his message are, in great, part, conjectural. But there can be no doubt that he will insist, as heretofore, that the excluded States should be recognized, and loyal men, duly qualified and elected, be admitted to their seats in the Senate and House, before the amendments to the constitution be proposed; and also that no amendment concerning representation should take effect till after the census of 1870.

As to the terms of an amendment respecting either representation or suffrage, I do not believe that the President will offer any suggestions. That is a matter that belongs to Congress and the people of the States. But it is conjectured by some that he will propose amendments, in accordance with views alleged to have been expressed by him, heretofore, to wit: that representatives be apportioned among the several States, according to the number of qualified male voters as furnished by each State, and the direct taxes according to the value of taxable property in each State.

It is believed by those who speculate on this subject that the fifteen or sixteen late slave-holding States will accept any plan of representation that the President may cordially approve and support. I doubt exceedingly myself whether the States concerned or the President would approve of the amendment thus suggested, at the present time. The Southern States are not prepared to qualify the male negroes as voters, and till they shall be thus prepared they are to lose a portion of the representation to which they are now entitled.

Two of the members of the Judiciary Committee have signified their intention of drawing articles of impeachment of the President as soon Congress meets.

Mr. Boutwell's articles in the Atlantic Monthly, for October, expresses the alarm of the Radicals at the certain progress of conservatism. It shows that the Johnson-Seward policy is near to success, especially in the great State of New York, where, it says, Mr. Seward's influence is still powerful.

From Illinois, Pennsylvania, and New York we now receive much encouraging information. Changes of an important character from the Republican to the Conservative side are becoming frequent in these States. There is a fair prospect of a considerable gain for the Conservatives in the Congressional representation. It is hardly to be doubted that we may gain members enough to destroy the two-thirds power of the Radicals in the Fortieth Congress.

A fellow being called as a witness in one of the English courts, the Judge demanded:

"What is your trade?"

"A'orse chaunter my lord."

"A what! A horse chaunter! Why what's that?"

"Vy, my lord, ain't you up to that ere trade?"

"I require you to explain yourself."

"Vell, my lord, I goes round among the livery stables—they all on'em know me—and ven I see a gen'man bargaining for an 'orse, I just steps up like a teetotal stranger, and says I, 'Vell, that's a rare 'un, I'll be bound.' Says I, "E's got the beautifulest 'cad and neck as I ever seed," says I. Only look at 'is open nostrils—he's got vind like a nogomotive, I'll be bound; he'll travel a 'undred miles a day, and never vunce think on't; them's the kind of legs as never fails.' Vell, this tickles the gen'man, and 'e says to 'imself, 'That ere 'onest countryman's a rale judge of a 'orse;" so, pleas you, my lord, he buys 'im and trots off. Vell then I goes up to the man vot keeps the stable, and I axes 'im, 'Vell, vat are you going to stand for that ere chaunty?" and he gives me a sovereign. Vell, that's what I call 'orse chaunting, my lord.—There's rale little harm in 't; there's a good many sorts on us. Some chaunts canals and some chaunts railroads."

THE SENTINEL.

Saturday Evening, Oct. 6, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—T. A. Granger, late Proprietor of the popular Hotel at Beaufort, has opened the "Granger Hotel" at Goldsboro, and is prepared to accommodate the public in first class style.

N. M. Vinson, of Johnston, offers for sale one thousand acres of valuable land in that county, lying on Neuse river, and on both sides of the North Carolina Railroad. It will be sold in a body or sub-divided to suit the purchasers.

SUPERIOR COURT.—This tribunal was engaged all day yesterday in trying Rufus and James Hodge for the alleged murder of Jno. Sturdivant. The Attorney General being related to the prisoners, Hon. Thomas Bragg, Col. E. G. Haywood and Mr. W. S. Mason appeared for the State. Messrs. B. F. Moore, S. F. Phillips and R. H. Battle, Jr., appeared for the prisoners. The Court was engaged until a late hour in the night in the examination of witnesses. The arguments of counsel were commenced this morning. The case had not been given to the Jury at the time of our going to press.

SERVICES TO-MORROW.—Rev. Dr. Lacy will preach in the Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning, (Sunday,) at the usual hour of worship.

Rev. Dr. N. F. Reid will preach at the Methodist Church.

The regular pastors will hold service in the other city churches.

HIS HONOR, Judge Merrimon, stated to the bar, yesterday, that the presentations by the Grand Jury of the Court, now in session here, indicated an alarming amount of crime in this county. He said that an extra week of Court would be necessary, and probably a Court of Oyer and Terminer also. And he stated that the only way to remedy the evil was to hold Courts and continue to hold them until crime is wiped out. His career thus far indicates that he is an unmistakable terror to evil doers.

Would it not be an improvement in the Court affairs of our country, if oaths were administered with more solemnity?

THE AGENT of the Bible Society for this State has recently sent to the Parent Society, to be deposited in the library of rare copies of the sacred Scriptures, an Irish Bible translated into the Irish character by the distinguished Bishop Bedell, and printed in 1681, making the volume one hundred and eighty five years old. It was presented by Rev. Simeon Colton, D. D., of Ashborough, Randolph County.

COOL WEATHER.—Though early in October, we are having, at present, a November touch of temperature. A few more such mornings as the last two or three will bring frost.—The first frosts in this latitude generally come between the 10th. and 20th. of October.

Y. M. C. A.—We are requested to state, that the Young Men's Christian Association of Raleigh will meet in the Presbyterian Church on Monday night next.

ARRIVALS AT THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE, Oct. 5th.—H. O. Scott and Dr. Crudup, Franklinton; J. C. Codner, Wayne Co.; A. H. Hicks and R. P. Thomas, Wake Forest; J. Hollingsworth and D. Coshwell, Fayetteville; D. W. Kerr, Alamance Co.; A. McCane, Mebaneville; Jas. A. Graham, Hillsboro'; C. Theo. Griffith, New York.

BASE BALL CLUBS.—Raleigh has two of these clubs at present in full blast, known, respectively, as the "Pioneer" and "Tar-Heel" clubs. The sport is a rational and manly one, and the young gentlemen belonging to the associations seem to enter into it with zest. The first-named club exercises on the field in front of the lot formerly occupied by Wm. Boylan, Sr., and the latter on Nash Square. A match game, we presume, will be made up between the two clubs, when practice shall have perfected their skill somewhat.

CALVIN J. ROGERS, ESQ.—We are requested to state that this gentleman, who is one of the candidates for the House of Commons in Wake, will be prevented, by imperative private engagements, from making the entire canvass of the County, though he will be present at some of the gatherings. Mr. Rogers, however, is generally well known throughout the County. He stands squarely in favor of the President's policy and in unqualified opposition to the Howard amendment.

For the Sentinel.

Can we not support a police uniform in our little City? It would add to the dignity of the "force," and would be a matter of convenience to the public, for they would thereby be able to recognize one of these officers when their services are needed. Raleigh is decidedly increasing, and will, in time, become a place of considerable dimensions, and deserves to have a full set of machinery.

We would suggest a die of Sir Walter Raleigh in lieu of the little silver star, now in use. It would be as appropriate to our police as a monument is to the police of Baltimore.

RUTHERFORD.—Gen. G. W. Logan and Nathan Scoggin are the Radical candidates for the Horse of Commons in Rutherford and Polk. It seems that they are not prevented from "announcing their views," as the Standard charged was the case in "certain localities" in the West.

LENOIR AND GREENE.—John H. Coward, Esq., and James P. Speight, Esq., are candidates for the Senate in Lenoir and Greene. F. M. Rountree, Esq., is a candidate for the Commons in Greene.

CRAVEN COUNTY ITEMS.—The Commercial says that, judging by the long freight trains passing over the Atlantic and N. C. R. R., the company is doing a fine business.

The bridge over the Trent, 1,900 feet long, is to be erected at once,—all of the frame-timber being in readiness. The work will be carried on without any delay in the passage of trains. The re-building of the Neuse bridge will immediately follow.

F. P. Latham, an esteemed citizen of the county, died a few days since. He was Chairman of the County Court. Few men have lived better and have been more useful in all the relations of life than F. P. Latham. His family, neighbors and county have sustained a severe loss in his death.

The locomotive, "Dr. Hawks," on the A. & N. C. R. R., made her run between Morehead City and Goldsboro', and back, on the 4th., draped in mourning in memory of the late lamented Dr. Francis Lister Hawks, an early friend of the road, in whose honor the locomotive was named. The graceful tribute attracted general attention.

General News.

Crwdglmpcs Ap Thomas, the Welsh bard, is coming to this country. He will be received by the Lwglmntrsmstrath of Philadelphia, and his performances on the Qthmdathrurgwstlyn, or Welsh harp, will be the most interesting musical event of the season. He is a native of Moelgwystrnwbstwith, and his father was the inventor of the Brnwrw Cymrstgggllyust.

The Charleston Courier, of Friday, says: "From a private letter which we have received from the estimable wife of the distinguished prisoner at Fortress Monroe, we learn with inexpressible regret that his health continues to decline, and that the pecuniary circumstances of the family are becoming very embarrassing."

NASHVILLE, Oct. 3, 1866.—Sufficient returns have been received to indicate a glorious victory for the Johnson conservatives in Davidson county. At a special election held on Saturday under Brownlow's new franchise law, Hon. John S. Brien has been elected to the Legislature by 1,500 majority over Dickey, radical, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Hon. S. J. Carter, radical.

HON. BEN. WOOD.—The Hon. Ben. Wood, of New York, so favorably known to the people of the South as proprietor of the New York News, and as a gentleman of genuine and unbounded benevolence, has purchased Long Island, an estate in Princess Anne county, Virginia.

Gen. Grant says no man living is authorized to speak for him in political matters. Greeley jumps up at once and pronounces him a Radical.

Lindsay, the preacher, who whipped his child to death, has been bailed in $12,000 to appear before the January term of Court, at Albion, New York, on a charge of manslaughter.

Beneath Jay Cooke's banking-house in Philadelphia, free lunch is served every day to the thirty-five attaches to the bank. This is to keep them from going to restaurant and being tempted to tipple.

Petroleum was struck on Tuesday in an artesian well at Terra Haute, Ind., at a depth of 1,300 feet. It is thought the well will yield 100 barrels per day.

The latest style of collar for men has turned down corners, on which appear dogs and horses heads. Asses ears are worn a little higher up.

It is said ex-Secretary Harlan, who ten years ago was not worth $5,000, has accumulated a fortune of nearly half a million of dollars. Pubic Plunder.

The Lynchburg News learns that 1000 Federal troops have been ordered to that place. The object of the concentration of so large a force at that point has not transpired.

Worthy of Imitation.

We append a notice which we find in the Chattanooga Daily American Union, of 2d. instant, which exhibits a truly noble spirit that should move the managers of all Southern Institutions to a like conduct. All honor to the Cedar Bluff Female College. May it prosper:

GENEROUS.—Any young girl living in Middle Tennessee, Alabama, or Mississippi, whose father was killed in battle, and whose means or resources were destroyed by this "cruel war," will be given one year's board and tuftion in the best Female College in the State of Kentucky, by addressing with references, Cedar Bluff Female College, Woodburn Post office, Warren county, Kentucky.

She will not be received as a charity scholar, but one whose father's blood left a double inheritance to his children.

Southern papers will please copy.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
110 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market.
